 Teller Lutheran Church

Our April prayer partner is Teller Lutheran Church in Teller, AK. It is one of six Lutheran (ELCA) congregations located on or connected to Alaska's Seward Peninsula, located near the Arctic circle in rural northwest Alaska. These primarily Alaska Native congregations share the good news of Jesus Christ in word and deed in beautiful and remote areas of the state.

Teller is an Inupiaq Eskimo village of about 250. Located 72 miles northwest on the Nome/Teller road, it is the only village on the Seward Peninsula accessible by car. The road is only passable by car during the summer months. From Teller, Brevig Mission is accessible via a five-mile boat ride.
